Ring in Spring Planning/Volunteer

RPTS 321 500

April 12, 2019

Ring in Spring was a pop up event put on by RPTS 321 and hosted by the Leach Teaching Gardens to promote the gardens by celebrate Aggie Ring Day. The event consisted of lemonade and cookies with photos and an opportunity to explore the gardens. I was in charge of creating the poster/flyer for the event, as well as, serving lemonade and cookies, planning the event, and acting as the photographer during the event.

Improvements that could be taken into consideration would be to incorporate some sort of activity to increase participation. Another issue is they had photos at the opposite end of the gardens but were not directing people to that end of the gardens to have their photo taken. It was a great socializing event but I feel like more could have gone into it.

Event Pictures:

- Group Photo
- Lemonade Table
- Patron eating a cookie
- Event poster in the space
- Planning teams aggie rings
